

The African American Arts & Culture Complex

San Francisco, California

The African American Arts & Culture Complex (supported primarily by the San Francisco Arts Commission) is dedicated to community change by fostering a commitment to service and activism through Afro-centric artistic and cultural performance, exhibition and programming in a 34,000 sq. ft. facility that house an art gallery and three art exhibitions spaces, a 203 seat theater, a recording studio, library and archives of African American history, two dance studios and other multi-purpose space.

The Complex offers visual and performing arts programs and classes including music, dance, theatre, audio recording, and arts and crafts, and an affordable performing arts venue for a host of community events, meetings, performances, art exhibits, trainings and conferences. The site also as a home to some of the most respected performing arts organizations in the Bay Area, including AfroSolo Theatre Company, the African American Shakespeare Company and Cultural Odyssey. Other resident art organizations include the San Francisco African American Historical and Cultural Society, the San Francisco Juneteenth Festival, Take Wings Foundation, Robert Henry Johnson and SF Noir.

The mission of the African American Arts & Culture Complex (<http://www.aaacc.org/>) is to empower the community through Afro-centric artistic and cultural expression, mediums, education and programming. Hence, it is dedicated to inspiring children and youth to serve as agents of change, cultivating their leadership skills and fostering a commitment to community service and activism. In addition, the Complex encourage, support and promote the work of young, aspiring Bay Area artists, and it also strives to develop partnerships with organizations that are similarly committed to our mission, and offer our space to the community for special events. The African American Arts & Culture Complex is located at 762 Fulton Street in San Francisco, California. Telephone: 415-922-2049.

